

We will be combining two 2-day courses into one 3-day course, making this a great training value. You will receive full credit for BOTH classes.

Pastoral Crisis Intervention I

Pastoral Crisis Intervention may be thought of as the combination of faith-based resources with traditional techniques of crisis intervention. Pastoral crisis intervention represents a powerful addition to traditional community and organizational psychological support resources. The purpose of this two-day course is to assist the participants in learning how pastoral interventions and traditional psychological crisis interventions may be effectively integrated. Chaplains, pastoral counselors, mental health professionals, ministers, and anyone interested in the use of faith-based resources in healing should find this course of interest. 13 contact hours.

Program Highlights

- Nature of human crisis
- Nature of crisis intervention

WHAT?

Pastoral Crisis Intervention is an internationally renowned course aimed at equipping ministers with emergent crisis intervention skills and knowledge. It is a 3-Day course accredited by the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation. A more complete description is on the back of this flyer.

WHEN?

PCI will be offered June 13-15 (Tue-Thu)
8:30am-5:00pm

WHERE?

Our class will be held at the SC Firefighters Annual Conference (Pre-Conference) at the Myrtle Beach Conference Center

WHO?

This class is designed to be of great value to local pastors, chaplains, and laypeople involved in responding to human crisis.

WHY?

When crisis strikes in your community, a Kingdom Ministry opportunity opens. As Kingdom ministers, we need to be ready to step in and BE the gospel.

Our class will be led by Chaplain Bill Lotz DMin, who has been a Baptist minister for nearly thirty years as a pastor and chaplain. He currently is the director of Chaplain Services Network in SE Washington and Training Director for the Federation of Fire Chaplains.
