At the gracious invitation of the Tennessee Fire Service and Codes Enforcement Academy, the Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains will present the following courses on the TFACA campus in Bell Buckle, TN:

CISM: Individual and Group Crisis Intervention
01-03 August 2016 (8 AM – 6 PM all 3 days)
This double course will cover both “Assisting Individuals in Crisis” and “Group Crisis Intervention”. Program is designed to teach participants the fundamentals of, and specific protocols for, individual and group crisis interventions. Participants will leave with the knowledge and tools to provide several group crisis interventions, specifically demobilizations, defusings and the Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD). The need for appropriate follow-up services and referrals when necessary will also be discussed. This Level 100 class taught by Chaplain Paul Trumpore.

CISM: Pastoral Crisis Intervention I & II
04-06 August 2016 (8 AM – 6 PM all 3 days)
This 3-day course combines ALL of the content of ICISF’s Pastoral Crisis Intervention and Pastoral Crisis Intervention II courses. Pastoral Crisis Intervention may be thought of as the combination of faith-based resources with traditional techniques of crisis intervention. Pastoral crisis intervention represents a powerful addition to traditional community and organizational psychological support resources. The purpose of this two-day course is to assist the participants in learning how pastoral interventions and traditional psychological crisis interventions may be effectively integrated. Chaplains, pastoral counselors, mental health professionals, ministers, and anyone interested in the use of faith-based resources in healing should find this course of interest. Program Highlights: Nature of human crisis, Nature of crisis intervention, Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM), Signs and symptoms of the crisis state, The “crisis of faith”, Criteria for psychological triage, Strategic SAFER-PCI Model, Common PCI Mistakes, Challenging PCIs, Crisis intervention, CISM and PCI, Risks and potential adverse reactions, Advance topics in assessment, Principals of basic spiritual first aid, PCI with those expressing theodolitic concerns, The incident management system (IMS). PCI with those expressing suicidal ideation, PCI with those in acute bereavement, Principles of death notification, and Principles and practices associated with self-care. This TFFC level 200 and 300 class taught by Chaplain, Colonel Charles Woods (USAF ret).

The TFFC Annual Business Meeting will be held at 6:30 PM on Thursday night, 04 August 2016.

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains

“Serving those who Serve”

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains supports the ministries of volunteer and paid fire department, ambulance service, and rescue squad chaplains, and assists emergency service agencies in developing their chaplaincy programs.

The TFFC cooperates with the Federation of Fire Chaplains on a national level, providing automatic membership and networking with the addition of a state-wide certification and accountability system for chaplains.

The Federation offers programs that provide its members with educational opportunities in training conferences and materials.

The network of mutual support offered by the TFFC helps disseminate and share information with other chaplains.

Assistance is given to fire/EMS/rescue organizations to start or improve their chaplaincy programs.

Benefits to Members

- Written materials designed to help chaplains implement and sustain effective programs.
- Four newsletters each year to keep chaplains current in their field.
- Educational opportunities offered to chaplains in annual conferences and regional meetings.
- A Fire Chaplain Directory provided to all members to provide a network of mutual support and information sharing.
- Provides standing in a professional organization. Certificates for completed training are provided.
- A training library of written, audio, and audiovisual materials is available to members.
- Chaplain identification provided through ID cards, membership certificates, arm patches, and vehicle decals.
- Provides outlines and programs for annual Memorial Services.

Benefits to Department

- Provides information on establishing a chaplaincy program.
- Gives chaplain training through conference, reference, lesson materials, and articles.
- Gives support and encouragement to the chaplain.
- Keeps the chaplain abreast of the latest programs and developments in the field.

Membership

Membership is open to those involved with the fire/EMS/rescue chaplaincy whether full-time career or volunteer.

Membership Qualifications

- Appointed to the chaplaincy by a fire/EMS/rescue service agency
- Endorsement by their religious body for the ministry as a chaplain
- Currently serving as an emergency service chaplain
- $100.00 annual dues

Chaplain Certification

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains certifies qualified chaplains for service with a “Standard of Care” recognized state-wide.

Qualifications for Certification

- Qualifications for membership above
- Ordination - or an approved plan of guidance providing clergy supervision for those chaplains without ordination
- Completion of 16 hour basic chaplain’s course provided by either the Tennessee or National Federation of Fire Chaplains
- Completion of Individual Critical Incident Stress Management course provided by International Critical Incident Stress Foundation
- Familiarization with the appropriate service through 70 hours of validated emergency service cross-training
- NIMS 100, 200, 700 & 800 completion
- Continuing Education of 16 hours/year

TFFC has members all across the State.
- TFFC is non-denominational, non-sectarian, with no compromise on individual convictions.

A Firefighter’s Prayer

When I am called to duty, Lord
Whenever flames may rage,
Give me strength to save some life
Whatever be its age.
Help me embrace a little child
Before it is too late,
Or save an older person from the
Horror of that fate.
Enable me to be alert
And hear the weakest shout,
And quickly and efficiently
To put the fire out.
I want to fill my calling
And to give the best in me.
To guard my every neighbor
And protect his property.
And if I am to lose my life
According to my call,
Please bless with your protecting hand
my family, one and all.

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains

He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted...
To give unto them beauty for ashes...
To proclaim the acceptable year of our Lord.

Isaiah 61
